WOMEN WELCOME PANSY

The National Council of Women of New Zealand (NCWNZ) would like to congratulate Pansy Wong on her appointment as the Minister of Women's Affairs in the National led government.

NCWNZ acknowledges an historic association between Mrs Wong and the Council. The Council looks forward to building on its past connection with Mrs Wong to forge a good and positive working relationship.

"The aim of NCWNZ is to have a solid working relationship with the Minister of Women's Affairs, we wish Pansy Wong the very best in her new role, and look forward to seeing her ideas and perspectives in this portfolio", says NCWNZ National President, Elizabeth Bang.
